STIPULATION OF FACTS

The parties hereby stipulate that, if this case had proceeded to trial, the Government would have proven the following beyond a reasonable doubt:

1. On March 9, 2015, Defendant Shelia B. Hatfield was an inmate at the Federal Prison Camp located in Greenville, Illinois, commonly known as FPC-Greenville, in Bond County, within the Southern District of Illinois, pursuant to a conviction for Social Security Fraud, in violation of Title 42, United States Code, Section 1383a, in the United States District Court for the Western District of Kentucky. At that time, the defendant was lawfully confined at FPC-Greenville at the direction of the Attorney General by virtue of the judgment and commitment of the United States District Court for the Western District of Kentucky set forth above.

2. On March 9, 2015, while still in the custody of the Attorney General or her designee, the defendant was located at a convenience store in Greenville, Illinois, within the Southern District of Illinois, which was outside of the grounds of Federal Prison Camp in Greenville, Illinois. The defendant knowingly left the custody of FPC-Greenville without authorization to do so from either the Attorney General, her designee, or anyone in a position of authority at FPC-Greenville.

3. This stipulation of facts is intended only to provide the Court with a sufficient foundation to accept the defendant's guilty plea and is not necessarily an exhaustive account of the defendant's criminal activity.
